WELCOME!

Ranfurly, you little beauty. One hundred and twenty five years old! That's one heck of a birthday, and we reckon you deserve one heck of a party - so here we go!

Here is your pull out event guide for what is happening over the course of the weekend from 1 - 3 December, 2023. Most events are free to attend, with the exception of the Art Exhibition opening and the Gala Night - tickets are available from the Ranfurly isite.

We hope you enjoy the various events and activities planned for the weekend. Keep up to date with the event on the Ranfurly 125 facebook page, or check out the window of More Than Books. We're proud to be supporting four local community projects with the funds raised throughout the weekend.

Here's to you, Ranfurly.
